RUMOR SAYS 'TIS ALLISON

Gallant Colonels and Majors Still Galloping.

LOST IN VIRGINIA'S WILDS

Commissioner Morrow, 'Tis Said, Reads These Accounts With Fear and Trembling.

"I'll bet ye a month's pay," said the top sergeant at Fort Myer yesterday, "that th' members of the Grand Ar-rmy of th' Roosevelt Ridin' School will be wishin' officers? it is hobby horses they're ridin' before ever they get to Fairfax Court House. "An' furthermore." spoke up the pro- all he knows about it ost sergeant, as he playfully dug his knuckles into the top sergeant's ribs. 'they'll be wonderin' what reveille is when they hear it so early in the morn-

Perhaps they did wonder. Perhaps some of the majors and colonels, as they rubbed their eyes at the screech o' dawn this morning, quoted that line from

"'What are the bugles blowing for? said Files-on-Parade. "To turn you out. To turn you out, the color sergeant said." For at 6:30 this morning enough officers o command a victorious army were ruthessly roused from a tired sleep by the rassy blare of the trumpet, and had he hell-cats been there they would have marched in and out of the tents, playing drums and blowing fifes so as to make sure that sweeter music than the strains of paradise played havoc with the lids of Lackaday! Read This.

There were thirty-seven of them as they ode gallantly away early yesterday morning; but, alas, one fell by the wayside and now there are but thirty-six. Rumor has it that Col. James N. Allison of the subsistence department, Governors Island, who has been suffering with stomach trouble recently, was taken ll just four miles this side of the spot where the camp was pitched. He made the rest of the trip in the ambulance. It s for no one to say that many other officers wished they had thought of it first Col. Allison will make the ride at a later

Yesterday's march was made at a trot and a walk. Only one stop was made, and that in order to keep the inner man from kicking too hard. He was quieted with a few sandwiches and the ruthless advance began again.

The required thirty miles of the first day's march came to an end at Fairfax Court House a few minutes after 3 p.m. Them Good Old Days.

It took seven hours and a half to do it There was lots of talk on the ride, and as they started out with the cool of the morning fanning their faces there were many recollections of times when riding gineers was a pleasure, when early mornings were given over to long gallops across country, when the sight of a hedge filled the field with emulation—and as for a long ditch, why, what was more exhilarating than to place one's feet firmly in the stirrups and let her go! But when they dismounted finally! Ah well, the army has been joshed so much about the test rides that no one connected with it wants to say much about the actual state of affairs, but rumor again has it that mysterious lotions were rubbed in well on spots that have not ached since Today's ride will be thirty more miles and Gen. Grant has ambitions of going out fifteen miles by one road and back by another, bringing his command into camp again at noon. If yesterday's ride made hem stiff, what will today's ride do? At any rate, riding-like that makes appetites enlarge themselves to enormous proportions, and the meals taste good, inyhow, and the cook has hard work.

SIBLEY AT THE WHITE HOUSE

Former Representative's Talk With the President About the Standard. Interest in Ohio Politics.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, September 18 .- William R. Hearst created a sensation here last night at a meeting under the auspices of the independence party, when he read letters which he said had been written by John D. Archbold of the Standard Oil Company, to Senator J. B. Foraker of Ohio, referring to legislation pending in Congress, and mentioning two inclosures of checks, one for $15,000 and another for $14,500. Mr. Hearst said:

"We claim that the republican party has been for a long time the beneficiary of trust corruption, and that the democratic party has only awaited an opportunity to share its sister's profitable infamy. We claim that the democrats are today eagerly competing with the republicans for trusts' favor,

Democrats Welcome Rockefeller.

"We claim that when Theodore Roosevelt whipped the Standard Oil out of the republican party the democratic party welcomed that convicted criminal with open arms. We claim that the democratic party killed for Mr. Rockefeller the fatted Lieut. Col. Thaddeus W. Jones, general calf, and that there is more rejoicing over this one sinner who has joined the democratic cause than there is over the hundreds of thousands of honest, faithful citizens who constitute the democratic masses. I am not here with empty assertions, but with legal evidence and documentary proof.

"I am now going to read copies of letters written by John D. Archbold, chief agent of the Standard Oil, an intimate personal representative of Mr. Rockefeller and Mr. Rogers. These letters have been given to me by a gentleman who has intimate associations with this giant of corruption, the Standard Oil, but whose name I may not divulge, lest he be sub-
